

EVENT DAY NAMING OPPORTUNITIES

Each event day (which includes night performances and competitions) will have an amazing and varied line up of competition, entertainment and action. We invite you to discuss the day which is most likely to advantage you and your products based on the event programme.

There are just three opportunities here.

- For an investment of just $5,500 GST inclusive, your name is used in the lead up marketing and media campaigns.
- You will receive consistent verbal advertising heard by event attendees on your named day, which may be generic to your brand or specific to your products and can be changed throughout the day to suit your needs.
- Your generic audio advertisements will also be broadcast around the complex at intervals on each of the remaining two event days ensuring maximum exposure.
- You will be featured on our TEE10 website, detailing the day you have chosen to sponsor and it's relevant activities. This will include a link to your own website ensuring all visitors have the opportunity to find out more about you and your products.
- Your products will be on offer at your very own 10 m x 3.6 m Trade Stand within the Main Arena.
- Your business banners will be located in a prime position within the world class AELEC Stadium Arena for the duration of the event.
- You will be provided with 10 daily general entry passes to the events for each day, to be distributed amongst your staff or clients as you see fit.
- You will be provided unlimited access to our VIP area which provides snacks and light beverages for our VIP guests that include invited competitors , judges and event organisers for the duration of the event.
- Fantastic industry networking opportunities on offer .
